

PARENT/GUARDIAN INFORMED CONSENT FORM FOR THE PARTICIPATION OF THEIR CHILD IN THE BRAINS AND GAMES INTERNATIONAL COMPETITION

EVENT: Brains and Games International Design Fiction Competition

ORGANIZER: The Brains@Play Initiative (<https://brainsatplay.com>)

Your child has been invited to participate in the Brains and Games International Design Fiction Competition. Their participation is voluntary. This document explains information about the competition. You should ask questions about anything that is unclear to you.

The purpose of this Competition is to a diverse range of creative ideas for brain-responsive multiplayer games. With a team of 2-4 others, your child will be asked to fill out a Design Document and associated materials for one of three submission categories. Entry to the Competition is free and anyone in the world may submit.

You or another parent/guardian of your child's team must submit their materials between February 1st and March 10th 2021. By submitting an entry to the Competition, you give permission to Brains@Play to use the information provided in your child's entry and during their participation in the Competition for the purposes of administering and judging the Competition and any other purpose connected to the Competition. This information may be shared with the panel members and anyone involved in the Competition. After the competition, Brains@Play also reserves the right to use the first name and ages of your child in any publicity both in paper and online.

Additionally, your child's team retains the copyright of their entry. However, submission to the Competition grants Brains@Play a perpetual, royalty-free license to publish, broadcast, communicate and make available your child's entry on media including, but not limited to, the Brains@Play Website and scientific or other publications in any electronic or physical media.

Before consenting to your child's participation in this event, please review the full list of Competition Rules.

If you have any questions about the Competition, please email contact@brainsatplay.com.

CHILD ASSENT FORM

EVENT: Brains and Games International Design Fiction Competition

ORGANIZER: Brains@Play (<https://brainsatplay.com>)

1. You have been invited to participate in Brains and Games Competition (BGC): an international design fiction competition intended to gather creative ideas for brain-responsive multiplayer games.
2. Entry to the Competition is free and anyone in the world may submit.
3. Your team retains the copyright of your entry but grants Brains@Play a perpetual, royalty-free license to publish, broadcast, communicate and make available your child's entry on media including, but not limited to, the Brains@Play Website and scientific or other publications in any electronic or physical media.
4. Brains@Play reserves the right to use your first name and age in any publicity both in paper and online.
5. By submitting an entry to the Competition, you give permission to Brains@Play to use the information provided by them in their entry and during their participation in the Competition for the purposes of administering and judging the Competition and any other purpose connected to the Competition. This information may be shared with the panel members and anyone involved in the Competition.
6. We will ask your parents to give their permission for you to take part in this Competition. Even if your parents say "yes" you can still say "no". You do not have to join this Competition; it is up to you.
7. You can say "yes" now and change your mind later. All you have to do is tell us you want to stop. No one will be mad at you if you don't want to be in the Competition or if you join the Competition and change your mind later and stop.
8. Before you say yes or no to being in this Competition, we will answer any questions you have. You can find more information about the competition on the BGC website: <https://brainsatplay.com/competition>. If you join the Competition, you can ask questions at any time, just tell the organizers that you have a question. You can email the organizers at contact@brainsatplay.com.

University of Southern California

If you put your name below, it means that you agree to participate in Brains and Games.

VERONICA MITSOPoulos Veronica Mitsopoulou 8/2/21
Name of Child Child's Signature Date Signed

MICHAEL MITSOPoulos M. Mitsopoulou 8/2/21
Name of Person Obtaining Signature Date Signed
Assent

The purpose of the Competition is to encourage a range of creative ideas for brain-based online multiplayer games. With a team of 2-4 others, your entry will be asked to fill out a Design Document and associated materials for one of these submission categories. Entry to the Competition is free and anyone in the world may submit.

Each adult or parent/guardian of your child's team must submit their signature before February 1st and March 1st, 2021, by submitting an entry to the Competition. You give permission to Brainstorm to use the information provided by you and your child's team and giving their participation in the Competition for the purpose of marketing and adding the Competition and any other purpose connected to the Competition. This information may be shared with the parent members and anyone involved in the Competition. Also, Brainstorm may also reserve the right to use the first name and ages of your child in any publicity, both in paper and online.

Additionally, your child's team retains the copyright of their entry. However, submission to the Competition grants Brainstorm a perpetual, royalty-free license to publish, broadcast, disseminate and make available your child's entry on our website, but not limited to the Brainstorm Play Website and website or other public space in any electronic or physical media.

Before consenting to your child's participation in this event, please read the full list of Competition Rules.

If you have any questions about the Competition, please email competition@brainstormplay.com.